ATTEMPT TO ROB HOUSE IN COUNTY

Thrilling Battle With Burglars at Mount Ida Last Night.

ESCAPE IN A WAGON.

Thirty Shots Fired, One of Which Struck Shelton Groves on the Wrist. Women Watch Battle.

A gang of buglars made a daring attempt to rob the country residence of James S. Groves, a realty operator, half a mile from Mt. Ida, Alexandria conty, and about three miles from Washington last night.

Over thirty shots were fired, but only one fired by the burglars took effect. Shelton Groves, twenty-two, was shot in the wrist and painfully, but not dangerously wounded.

It is believed several of the shots fired at the would-be housebreakers took effect, but other members of the gang bundled them into a big wagon which was waiting and all escaped. They were last seen coming toward Alexandria.

While the pistol battle was at its height, two young Washington women who had been guests at the Groves' home last night, sat in an automobile less than 100 feet from the scene of the fight. No shots were fired by the burglars in the direction of the automobile. The names of the young women are not given.

Mr. Groves, his wife and daughters are in Norfolk, where he operates a hotel. Shelton, who was shot; George, aged twenty, and Wallace, thirteen, were the only ones at home.

Shelton and George gave a dinner party at the house last evening, most of the guests being from Washington. Shortly before midnight, the guests left in automobiles. Two of the young women had no escorts, and Shelton and George, accompanied by their younger brother, started for Washington with them in their automobile.

When nearly to the city, Wallace was taken suddenly ill, and it was necessary to turn back to the house.

Just after Shelton and George Groves started away in the automobile, James Scott, colored, who slept in a room in the rear of the second floor and who was the only person in the house at the time, was awakened by the sound of breaking glass. Getting out of bed and looking out of the window, he saw a gang of men attempting to get in one of the windows on the first floor. Three more men were trying to break into the garage.

Scott got a shotgun and opened fire. The men in the yard returned the shots. Scott had another loaded shotgun in the room, which he also fired. By this time several bullets had struck the window frame close to his head.

He then got a pistol and emptied it at the crowd.

Just as Scott had exhausted his ammunition, Shelton and George returned in the automobile. They had heard the shot when some distance away and had driven at top speed.

There was a loaded revolver in the automobile. Shelton Groves seized the weapon, jumped from the automobile, and began firing. The men in the yard then turned their attention toward him, and several bullets whistled close to his head, but the only shot which took effect was the one that struck his wrist.

The men then got into a large wagon, with a white top, and drove off toward Alexandria. The fact that two of the men had to be helped into the wagon leads to the belief that they were wounded.

How many men there were in the gang coul dnot be accurately determined. Shelton and George Groves said they did not believe there was less than eight, but Scott the colored man, said that when he looked out the window first, it seemed to him like there were a dozen or more in the yard.

Wallace, the youngest brother, got out of the automobile with Shelton and ran to the home of Jenifer Broaddus, about a quarter of a mile away.

The lad managed to tell what had occurred, and then fainted.

Mr. Broaddus telephoned the Alexandria police to be on the lookout for the wagon containing the men, but they failed to get any trace of them.

It was so dark in the yard that neither Scott nor the Groves brothers could give the authorities any description of the men. They said they thought all the men were white.

MANOEUVERS IN AUGUST.

General Evans Will Detail Fifteen Regular Army Officers to Assist Virginia Troops.

Richmond, Va., April 7—While no definite date has been set for the manoeuvers campaign in which troops from five states will take part this summer near Washington, Brigadier-Gen. Evans, commander of the Department of the East, United States Army, has notified Adjutant-General W. W. Sale that the big war game would begin August 4 and 20. This time is most acceptable to the Virginia troops, as General Sale had notified the War Department several weeks ago that August 1 to 15 would be the most convenient period for the militia of this state.

The troops of the Seventh and Eighth Divisions of the militia will take part in the manoeuver campaign, which will be designated as a camp of instruction and carried out by the department commander either in person or by representatives, while the opposing sides will be commanded by regular army officers. The law governing the organized militia provides that in all joint exercises of the army and organized militia, the senior officer of the regular army commands without regard to the rank of any officer of the organized militia participating.

In order that the troops of the organized militia may derive the greatest possible benefits from the manouever campaign, General Evans announces that, in addition to the officers on duty with the regular troops taking part in the maneouvers, one regular officer will be attached to each battalion or fraction thereof of engineers and signal troops, with each battery of artillery, and with the sanitary troops at each camp. Officers detailed for this duty will, if practicable, be of the same arm of the service as the unit to which he will be attached, except in the case of signal troops, for which purpose any properly qualified officer having the necessary technical knowledge will be detailed. Under this arrangement fifteen regular army officers will be assigned to the Virginia troops, two to the infantry, three to the artillery and one each to the signal troops and sanitary troops.

FACES DEATH FOR BABY.

Later Rescued by Fireman, But Suffers Fatal Burns.

New York, April 7.—Fireman "Tim" O'Leary, of Engine Company No. 15, volunteered to face what seemed to be almost certain death yesterday afternoon, when fire raged through the top floor of the five-story tenement house at No. 214 Monroe street. A woman screamed that a baby had been left in a back room of the burning floor. It was Francis, the 6-months son of Mrs. Anton Balesk.

O'Leary called for the men with the hose to shoot water over his body as he crawled on his hands and knees through the fire. He started in, the hose playing close against his spine. He reached the crib and the baby and managed to wriggle back to safety on his stomach.

The baby was already so badly burned that it was thought at Gouverneur Hospital, that it would die as the result of the burns.

Must Face Capital Charge.

Norfolk, Va., April 7.—William Girou, 17 years old, accused of assaulting Estelle Harrison, of Brooklyn, was indicted by the grand jury yesterday. He will face a jury on trial for his life on April 25. The Harrisons live at 965 Gates Avenue Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, the girl's parents, testified before the jury that Estelle is only 13 years old. The girl claims Girou attacked her while she was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Eddie Rhea. The latter, she claims, paid her fare from New York to Norfolk and promised to get her a position on the stage.

DUAL TRAGEDY IN RICHMOND

NEIGHBOR A WITNESS.

Sergeant Claimed That His Victim Was the Cause of His Unpleasant Domestic Experience.

Richmond, Va., April 7.—Police Sergeant Phillip L. Neisz last night at 10:45 o'clock shot and instantly killed Mrs. Roberta Lester, thirty years old, and then fired a bullet into his right temple, dying while being taken to a room at the Virginia hospital.

The shooting took place at 714 West Broad street, where the woman acted as agent for the Virginia Laundry, and with two small children occupied a room in the rear.

The first person to arrive after the shooting found the dead woman lying on the floor, and the still-breathing sergeant opposite her, the soles of their feet touching

Neisz's head was resting in a pool of blood, but a physician who had been summoned from St. Elizabeth's Hospital, said there was no hope for him. In the City Hospital ambulance he was rushed with all possible speed to the Virginia, where he died immediately upon his arrival.

The shooting was said to have been the result of a long association of Neisz with Mrs. Lester. It was learned afterward that when he left his home, 1128 West Marshall street, he told his wife that he was going to "kill that woman." He is also said to have threatened the life of Mrs. Neisz.

Later in the night, when the room where the crime was committeed was benig examined, two locks on a rear door were found to be broken, which led to the belief that Neisz had forced his way into the house.

Mrs. Miller, who lives next door to the house in which the murder and suicide took place, gave the details of the shooting. She said that she was in her home when she heard screams from the room occupied by Mrs. Lester. She hurried there and found that Sergeant Neisz had struck her, inflictnig a gash on her cheek. Neisz's coat was lying upon the bed, and Mrs. Lester, only partly dressed, was bathing the wound upon her face with witch hazel.

"She broke up my home, and I am going to kill this woman," Neisz told Mrs Miller. As he uttered the words he drew his revolver, and leaning over the shoulder of Mrs. Miller, who was too terrified to move, fired one shot. The bullet passed through Mrs. Lester's temple, causing instant death. Powder from the pistol burnt a hole in the coat worn by Mrs. Miller. According to her story, the officer then turned the weapon upon himself, fired a bullet into his brain, and fell. He never regained consciousness.

DEATH IN FLAMES.

Member of Prominent Family Burned When Alcohol Lamp Ignites Her Garments.

Philadelphia, April 7.—Three hours after receiving terrible burns when the flame of an alcohol stove set fire to her clothes, Mrs Ida Futhey Brinton, widow of the late Dr. William Bowen Brinton, of West Chester, and daughter of the late Judge John Smith Futhey, one time President Judge of the Chester County Courts, died in Jefferson hospital, yesterday. Mrs. Brinton was 67 years of age and lived in apartments at No. 1305 Locust street.

The accident occurred while Mrs. Brinton was preparing her breakfast. The alcohol flame failed at first, and in trying to detect the cause Mrs. Brinton removed a coffee pot she had set to boil, and was just bending over the stove when the flame darted out and ignited the waist of her dress. In a moment she was enveloped in fire.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

Preparing for Entertainment of Virginia Press Association.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher today named the following committee to have charge of the arrangements for the entertainment of the members of the Virginia Press Association which will hold its annual meeting in this city in June: President F. F. Marbury, of the Board of Aldermen; President R. D. Brumback, of the Common Council, Carroll Pierce, president of the Chamber of Commerce; J. T. Preston, secretary and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce; Harry Hammond, president of the Retail Merchants Association; Harrie White, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association; James F. Peyton, of the Washington Post; M. T. Dwyer, of the Washington Star; A. J. Wedderburn, editor of the Alexandria Sunday Times, and Robert S. Barrett editor of the Alexandria Gazette. The committee will meet shortly and elect a chairman and prepare a program for the entertainment of the editors.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS.

Young Man From Accomac County Appears on North Lee Street With a Pistol.

About half past eleven o'clock last night Officers Campbell and Miller were called into a house on north Lee street to prevent a disturbance which seemed to be imminent between two men. William Yeatman, a young man from Accomac county, was one of the parties to the quarrel, and the officers discovered he had a pistol in his back pocket. The weapon was taken from him together with a box of cartridges.

Yeatman was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, when he attempted to prove to the court that the pistol was not concealed, and that the man with whom he was quarreling when the officers entered had brought on the colloquy and was about to attack him.

Justice Caton imposed a fine of fifty dollars. The young man not having that amount, was held.

FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Negro Strikes Conductor of Electric Train Saturday Night.

Among the passengers who were aboard the electric train which left this city for Mount Vernon at 11:30 o'clock last Saturday night was a negro named John Jasper, who is employed at a brick yard south of Alexandria. He was smoking in the motor car, when Conductor Griffin called his attention to the fact that such conduct is against the rules. The negro was obdurate and during the colloquy Jasper struck the conductor. Special Officer Payne yesterday arrested the assailant and he was conducted before Justice Kerby in Fairfax county. The accused was represented by Robinson Moncure and the conductor by James R. Caton. Jasper plead guilty of assault and was assessed $9.75—$5 fine and $4.75 costs.

JAILED, WITH BABY, FOR DEBT.

Mother, With Mere Infant, Shut in Cell, Cries Ceaselessly.

New York, April 7.—Since Saturday afternoon Mrs. Gloethim Gallo has been in Ludlow street jail with her 2 1-2 months old baby, for failing to pay a debt of $188.50. Today other inmates of Debtors' Row and Alimony Alley who listened all Saturday night and Sunday to the mother's cries and the baby's crooning appealed to Sheriff Grifenhagen to see if something could not be done to release the woman. Neighbors are caring for the four children she left behind at home.

Three Leap to Death.

New York, April 7.—Hysterical when the operator lost control of an elevator, causing it to plunge up and down the shaft two women and a man jumped to their death today. The elevator was crowded when the car suddenly dropped six stories then reversed itself and shot up to the twelfth floor, where it struck. As it passed the floors the three jumped out, endeavoring to land on the floor, but each dropped to the bottom of the shaft.

COMMISSIONS GO TO TAX REFORMERS

Meeting For Organization Will be Held in Richmond Shortly.

MEMBERS ENDORSED.

Indications are at Present That Dr. Page or Senator Echols Will be Named as Chairman.

Richmond, Va., April 7.—Commissions were issued yesterday to members of the State Tax Commission named last week by Governor Stuart, Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson and Speaker Cox. Those appointed by the Governor will receive official notice through the Secretary of the Commonwealth; those named from the Senate by the Lieutenant-Governor will be officially notified by Librarian Jeter, of the Senate, and the four members of the House appointed by the Speaker will receive their appointments through Clerk John W. Williams of the House of Delegates. There is no provisions as to how or when the commission is to be called, save that it is to assemble "with all convenient haste," and to proceed to organize by electing one of its number chairman and another secretary. The local members are waiting for some one to take the bull by the horns and suggest a date for an organization meeting.

Governor Stuart has received many message of congratulation on his selections for the commission. His three men will each approach the problem from a different angle, but all with years of training and special information that will bear on the subject.

While, of course, no one can speak for the commission, it has been suggested that the chairman be either Dr. Page, of the University, or Senator Echols. Dr. Page was a member of the Federal Tariff Board, and is an economist of world-wide reputation, holding degrees from three foreign universities.

The Governor's other appointees were Stephen R. Donohoe, formerly Auditor of Public Accounts, who has had first-hand experience in the shaping of revenue laws in the General Assembly and in their administration as auditor; and Joseph Bannister Anderson, of Danville.

Mr. Anderson has been commissioner of the revenue of Danville since 1897, and has a wide reputation for accuracy and efficiency in the administration of the present tax laws. He is bout 60 years af age, and was born at Spring Garden, in Pittsylvania county, and in his younger days was in newspaper work in Danville. In 1877 he graduated with honors from Emory and Henry College in the class with Judge John A. Buchanan, of the State Supreme Court.

All members of the commission have accepted the responsibility placed on them. Through the aid of deputies Mr. Anderson will be able to retain his office while performing his duties on the tax commission.

STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Richmond, Va., April 7 — While serving as clerk to the board of Sinking Fund Commissioners yesterday morning, Chase W. Morton, chief clerk in the office of the Second Auditor, and the oldest employe of the State in point of service, was stricken with paralysis in his right side. He was removed to his home, 220 West Main street, where his condition was reported as being hopeful. Mr. Morton is about 64 years of age, having served in the Home Guard around Richmond when a mere boy in the latter days of the war. He had been connected with the office of the Second Auditor for thirty years in January.

Second Auditor Page said yesterday that Mr. Morton was one of the most exact and useful men he had ever known. His uniform courtesy was known to all who had business with the office.

SUICIDE IN SOLID COMFORT.

Puts Bullet in Bod yas he Lolls in Chair Puffing Pipe.

Philadelphia, April 7.—Lolling in a rocking chair, with his feet propped up on a cushion on another chair John Ellsworth, 57 years old, was found dead, yesterday, with a bullet wound in his abdomen, in the kitchen of his hermit home, at No. 833 Corinthian avenue. His right hand still grasped a revolver and a tobacco pipe lay beneath his chair. Apparently he had committed suicide at the end of a comfortable smoke. He had been dead since Saturday.

Illness and loneliness are believed to have prompted Ellsworth to end his life.

PREACHER RUN OUT OF TOWN.

Anti-Catholic Lecturer Beaten and Deported From Denver.

Denver, April 7—Rev. Otis L. Spurgeon, of Des Moines, who was forcibly escorted from the city Sunday night because of attacks on the Catholic priesthood in a lecture, was brought to a local hospital yesterday morning, suffering from injuries at the hands of his assailants. Physicians attending him refused to permit any one to see him. Effortsof the police to learn the identity of Spurgeon's assailants have been unsuccesful.

Child Dies of Scalds.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 7—One child died from scalds in the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital Sunday, and other child of the same age and whose home was near by, is in a critical condition from scalds in a similar manner to the first.

Three-year-old William Carpenter died as the result of injuries he received on Saturday when he fell into a tub of boiling water in his home at No. 4943 Kersaw avenue, and a few minutes after the boy had breathed his last, Mrs. Moore, wife of Policeman Moore, of the 29th district, ran breathless into the hospital carrying her 3-year-old daughter Beatrice in her arms and crying for aid.

The baby was so badly scalded that the flesh was almost falling from the bones on some parts of the body, and the physicians fear she cannot recover. Mrs. Moore said that the girl had tumbled into a tub of boiling water while playing in the bath room of the home, at No. 5137 Girard avenue.

Painting Worth $50,000 Stolen.

Brussels, April 7.—M. Bernau today reported the theft of a painting valued at $50,0000 from his automobile, on the road near Brussels last night. The painting, representing the Infant Christ in the lap of the Virgin, was being conveyed to the curator of the Plantin Museum, at Antwerp. A tire of M. Bernau's automobile burst, and the picture is believed to have been stolen while repairs were being made.

SENATE CONFIRMS SIX VIRGINIANS

All But One Big Federal Position in Virginia Disposed of.

GRONER'S SUCCESSOR.

Petersburg Man Will Probably be Nominated by The President for District Attorney.

Washington, April 7.—Six of the seven large Virginia federal appointment plums were finally disposed of yesterday when the Senate in executive session confirmed the following nominations:

John M. Hart, of Roanoke, to be collector of internal revenue for the Western District.

Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester, to be United States District Attorney for the Western District.

This disposes of all the large federal appointments in the state with the exception of district attorney for the eastern district and assistant district attorney for the Western district.

The resignation of D. Lawrence Groner, of Norfolk, as District Attorney for the Eastern District, which was requested last week by Attorney-General McReynolds, was received at the Department of Justice yesterday. Immediately upon its receipt the Department sent to the White House the application and endorsement of Richard H. Mann, of Petersburg, as district attorney to succeed Groner.

The department recommended his appointment to President Wilson, and Mann will in all probability be nominated today, and confirmed as soon as Senators Martin and Swanson can bring it about.

With the appointment of Mann out of the way the Virginians will probably be able to interest the department of justice in the appointment of an assistant district attorney in the Western District, which is the only plum remining. Hiram Smith, of Richmond, several months ago, was appointed as assistant district attorney in the Eastern District, and will remain in that position.

The assistant district attorneyship for the west will almost without a doubt go to Congressman Flood's district. With the exception of Congressman Jones, Mr. Flood is the only member of the Virginia delegation not to receive an appointment for his district from among the seven big offices. Flood could have secured one of the other large offices for his district, but withdrew in favor of the other members for the sake of party harmony.

Aside from the seven big offices, Mr. Flood has secured for his district patronage equal to any of the others. Among the big positions he has secured is that of Mr. Porter, of Staunton, as chief of the income tax collection division.

The forces commenced yesterday for a contest to be held in Congressman Jones' office today to secure the postoffice at Newport News. The three candidates for the office, Charles R. Hoskins, E. W. Huffman, and Chas. W. Mugler, all have excellent indorsements.

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

Miss Anna Portner, whose marriage to Representative Henry D. Flood, of Virginia, will take place April 18, will have a large and interesting bridal part. Her elder sister, Mrs. Larimer Graham, will be matron of honor, and her younger sister, Miss Hildegarde Portner, will be maid of honor.

Her bridesmaids are to be Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the Speaker of the House of Representatives; Baroness Marie Bumgarten, daughter of Baron Bumgarten, formerly attached to the Austro-Hungarian embassy in Washington. Miss Hanna Taylor, daughter of Mr. Hannis Taylor; Miss Cornelia Clagett, Miss Douglas Fuller, of Winchester, Va., and Miss Lucy Martin, the school girl daughter of Senator Martin, of Virginia.

Representative Flood will have his nephew, Henry Flood Byrd, of Virginia, for his best man, and eight prominent Washingtonians will act as his ushers.

The ceremony will be performed in All Soul's Church at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A reception at the bride's apartment, at the Highlands, will follow the chruch ceremony.

Miss Portner is the daughter of the late Robert Portner and Mrs. Portner, of Manassas, Va., where she has a beautiful country home. She made her debut in Washington a number of years ago, but for the last two seasons has been in mourning, and has taken no part in society. Miss Portner makes her winter home with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Meredith.

Representative Flood is chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives, and is well known in society."

A very delightful musical was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Oscar F. Carter, at her home near the University, Charlottesville, to her music pupils.

The program was faultlessly rendered and each young lady showed remarkable talent and progress.

Miss Elizabeth Lindsay, charmingly rendered the "Scarf Dance" by Chaminade and "Rustic Dance," by William Mason. Miss Isabel Cochran showed unusual skill in the rendering of a "Slumber Song," by Hillar, and a Duet from Rigoletto and "Berceuse" from Jocelyn by Goddard and concert Collonade by Engleman, played by Miss Mary Stuart Gooch was greatly enjoyed. After the musical delicious refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Mrs. Henry M. Lewis, Mrs. R. L. Rodes, Miss Rodes, Miss Bruffey, Miss Bruffey, Miss Wright, Mrs. H. T. Nelson, Misses Fan and Sue Harmon, Mrs. Joel M. Cochran, Mrs. Gooch, Mrs. Lindsay and Miss Goss.

Mrs. Carter is well known here, where she resided before moving to Charlottesville.

Miss Jellis Scott has returned to her home in Richmond after visiting Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson, at her home in north Washington street.

FELL FROM BICYCLE.

Young Man Has Fit While Riding on Prince Street This Morning.

Shortly after nine o'clock this morning, Walter Douglass, a young man, residing on south Fairfax street, narrowly escaped serious injury while riding a bicycle on Prince street, between Fairfax and Royal. While opposite the Relief truck house he fell in a fit from the bicycle the wheel faling upon top of him.

A number of people were on the square at the time, nearly all of whom ran to the relief of the young man, and he was picked up and was later resuscitated.

He escaped serious injury. The accident occurred at a place where electric trains and automobiles are passing at short intervals.

PASSOVER FEAST NEAR

Season of Rejoicing for Jews Will Begin Next Friday Evening

Pesach, or the Feast of Passover, the most joyous festival in the Hebrew calendar, begins next Friday evening. The holiday is observed for seven days by the reformed Hebrews, while the orthodox keep eight. The observance of the feast is marked by special prayer in the synagogue. The chief observance, however, is in the home.

In most of the homes ordinary bread is not eaten during the festival, Instead, "Matzoth," or unleavened bread, in which no yeast has been used in its preparation, is consumed. In the orthodox homes on the first two evenings a special service knows as the "Seder," is conducted by the head of the family, previous to the evening meal The "Seder" is always given in Hebrew.

Passover is the oldest feast of the Hebrew calendar. It commemorates the emancipation of Israel from Egyptian bondage about 3,300 years ago, and the people's entrance into the dignity and destiny of national life. It thus marks the birth of Hebrew people.

Services appropriate to the occasion will be held in the synagogue in north Washington street.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

Charles Sorrell Assaults Charles Littlejohn With a Brick.

Charles Sorrell, a young white man, was before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of assaulting Charles Littlejohn, colored. The trouble originated in a saloon in the northeastern section of the city, and from the evidence it seems to have started over a game of cards in which Sorrell and several negroes were engaged. Upon leaving the saloon LitleJohn encounter Sorrell, who was armed with two bricks, one of which he hurled at the object of his wrath. The missile struck the negro on the right side of the face and seriously injured him.

Sorrell alleged that he acted in self-defense, and that Littlejohn was about to use a knife upon him.

Another case in which a brick figured was brought before the court. Annie Crouch, white, charged Lizzie Jackson, colored, with striking her with a brick near the old canal basin. The trouble originated over children. The white woman alleged that the children of the colored woman threw thones into her yard. The victim of the assault did not seem to be much hurt, the Jackson woman was fined $5.00.

NEW JONADAB COUNCIL

Members of Order in Washington Will Install Council in Alexandria

Grand Visitor and Lecturer Sam De Nedrey and a committee from the various councils of Washington, will visit Alexandria at an early date to institute a council of the organization.

About two-score years ago a council of the Sons of Jonadad was instituted in Alexandria, and it flourished for a time. Later, however, interest in the organization flagged, and it eventually became a thing of the past. About that time there was a lodge of Good Templars (a temperance organization) in this city, but it passed out of existence in a few years.

Shortly after the civil war there were thre total abstinence organizations in Alexandria—Mount Vernon Division and Harmony Division, Sons of Temperance, and a tent of Rechabites. These orders held weekly meetings in Phoenix Hall, northwest corner of King and Royal streets. Sarepta Lodge of Odd Fellows, Osceola Tribe of Red Men, Mount Vernon Division, Brotherhood of the Union, and Mechanics' Lodge, Knights of Pythias, also met there.

All these organizations were vigorous, but Sarepta Lodge and Osceola Tribe seems to have only survived the tooth of time.

The Sons of Temperance was an ante bellum Alexandria institution, and at the close of hostilities increased interest was manifest in the order. A few years ago the Rechabites were organized, but the advent of others together with the trades unions threw the older institutions into an eclipse.

The Sons of Jonandab are thriving bodies in other cities, and the reorganization of the order in Alexandria may prove more successful now than in former years.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

R. E. Lee Camp Elect Officers at Meeting Last Night.

The annual meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans was held last night at the home of the organization on Prince street. The following officers were elected:

W. A. Smoot, commander.

J. W. Hammond, first lieutenant commander.

Jesse Murray, second lieutenant commander.

Booker C. Hall, third lieutenant commander.

Edgar Warfield, adjutant.

R. M. Latham, quartermaster.

E. C. Graham, treasurer.

G. Wm. Ramsay, officer of the da;

The Rev. J. W. Duffey, chaplain.

J. B. Spicer, vidette.

Edgar Warfield, G. William Ramsay and F. J. Davidson, executive committee.

Arrangements were discussed for the observance of Confederate Memorial Day which will be observed this year on May 25th, and G. William Ramsay and Edgar Warfield, were named as a committee to have charge of the celebration.

The report of Commander Smoot for the past year showed that the affairs of the camp were in a flourishing condition. Three members died during the year and three new members were admitted. The application o fa comrade for admission to the Soldiers' Home in Richmond was approved.

WATCHMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Knocked Over Lighted Lamp, Setting Fire to Shack and Himself

Norfolk, Va., April 7.—Knocking over a lighted lamp as he crawled out of bed half asleep, W. A. Davis, a white stableman, employed by the Nottingham & Wren Co., was so badly burned Sunday night that he died at the Protestant Hospital a few hours later. The accident happenad about 7.45 o'clock in a frame shack on Front street where Davis had a room. His clothing a mass of flames, Davis managed to make his way to the street, where he rolled in agony until he extinguished the flames.

Assistant Fire Chief Bunting put Davis in his buggy and rushed him to the Protestant Hospital. Davis was so badly burned about the body and face that he lived only a short time. The fire was put out by chemicals by companies 3 and 6.

The damage to the building was slight.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECK.

Traffic on Southern Railway Delayed by Accident North of Greensboro.

Danville, Va., April 7—All traffic on the Southern Railway main line was interrupted from midnight Saturday until 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon by the derailment of a freight engine and fourteen cars at Reedy Fork trestle, ten miles north of Greensboro. The trestle was smashed and the track torn up badly. Strange to say no one was killed or seriously hurt.

ACCUSED OF DESERTING WIFE.

Richmond Man May Also Face Bigamy Charge.

Baltimore, Md., April 7.—Wanted in Richmond, Va., on the charge of deserting his wife, Nathaniel Robinson, who has been living at 424 West Biddle street, was arrested yesterday by Detective Busick. He is locked up at the Central Police station awaiting the arrival here of a detective from the Virginia city.

Robinson told the detective that he had divorced his wife in Mansfield, Ohio, and that he had married another woman, who is now in New York. Detective Busick stated that the Richmond wife denies having been divorced and Robinson will likely be indicted for bigamy in Virginia if he has another wife in New York.

Smothered to Death.

Memphis, Tenn., April 7.—Trapped in the murky depths of a caisson, nine men employed in laying the foundation of the J. T. Harahan bridge across the Mississippi river, were smothered to death yesterday.

The house of death was finally broken open and the lifeless forms lifted out. Ambulances carried the dead to the Emergency Hospital.

Revolution has broken out again in Santo Domingo, and fighting has been in progress in the north of the island since March 30, according to authoriative dispatches.

"GETS-IT" FOR CORNS ON YOUR PIGGY-WIGGIES !

A few drops of "GETS-IT", the biggest seller in the world today of any corn remedy, is enough to spell positive doom to the fiercest corn that ever cemented itself to a toe. It's

You apply "GETS-IT" in two seconds—no fussing with plasters that don't stay put, with salves that make corn "pull" and make the toe beefy and raw, with knives, scissors, razors and diggers that make corns grow faster and that may cause blood poison from corn-cutting and corn-bleeding. "GETS-IT" shrivels up the corns, they come right off. That's the new principle. It's just common sense. No more corn-pains. "GETS-IT" is safe, and never hurts the flesh. Get rid of corns and calluses.

"GETS-IT" is sold at 25c a bottle by all druggists, or sent direct if you wish, from E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. (87).

DEATH OF MRS. PEYTON WISE.

Deceased Was Descended From Long Line of Illustrious Virginians.

Richmond, Va., April 7.—After an illness of several months Mrs. Peyton Wise, died of heart failure Sunday morning in the Mount Vernon, Third and Franklin streets.

Mrs. Wise was Laura Mason Chilton, a daughter of Robert H. Chilton, Adjutant-General of the Army of Northern Virginia. She was descended from a long line of illustrious Virginians. Through her mother, Laura Mason, she was related to the Masons of Gunston Hill. Her uncle, Stevens Thomas Mason, was first Governor of the State of Michigan.

Mrs. Wise's girlhood was spent in Richmond. Her own attractiveness and her father's distinguished services to the Confederacy gave her a joyous reception in the society of the Confederacy's capital. After the war she lived for some time in Georgia until the time of her marriage on November 25, 1869, to the late General Peyton Wise. The marriage was celebrated at Mount Calvary Church, one of the most noted Episcopal edifices in Baltimore. Since that time Mrs. Wise lived in Richmond, where she was widely known as a woman of great intellectuality and personal charm. Study and wide travel had given to her a culture that was the delight of all who knew her. Her touching devotion to the Lost Cause and her innate nobility of character will long be remembered as a typification of what is best in Southern womanhood.

FIREMEN KILLED.

Explosion on the New Destroyer Aylwin.

Norfolk, Va., April 7.—Second-class Fireman Harmon is dead and Water Tender Glynn and Second-class Fireman Eaton are in a serious condition from burns as a result of the explosion which occurred yesterday on the navy torpedoboat destroyer Aylwin off the North Carolina coast. Harmon died while being brought here on the torpedoboat Benham.

The Aylwin, on an even keel, is being towed in by the destroyer Parker.

The explosion occurred in the forward fireroom on the port side of the Aylwin, and resulted in several plates being blown off the vessel's side above the water line.

The Aylwin is one of the navy's newest and largest type destroyers. She is one of the four recently built at Philadelphia. Her sister ships are the Benham, Parker and Balch. The Aylwin has displacement of 1,036 tons and indicated horsepower of 16,000. She has twin screws.

MARINE TO THE RESCUE.

Plunges Into The Rives and Saves Mother and Four Children.

Norfolk, Va., April 7.—A handful of people witnessed an unusually thrilling and heroic rescue at the foot of Brambleton avenue about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon when Private H. J. Butler, of the Marine barracks rescued Mrs. Mary Trace and her four small children from the waters of Eastern Branch.

Private Butler was walking down Brambleton Avenue with Miss Sallie Deans when, on reaching the water front, he heard cries for help. Rushing to the water's edge, he saw that a boat, in which Mrs. Trace and the children had been rowing from the houseboat in which they lived nearby, had capsized. Plunging into the water he succeeded in getting Mrs. Trace and the four children safely ashore.

The youngest child, about a year old, was unconscious when taken from the water, and after trying to find a physician without success, Private Butler ran to McKendree Church and called Dr. T. Edwin Baird from the service. The baby had a quantity of water in its lungs, but Dr. Baird finally restored it to consciousness. The mother and the other three children were little the worse for the experience.

Mrs. Trace lives on a houseboat anchored at the foot of Brambleton Avenue.

KILLS FATHER'S ASSAILANT.

Virginia Youth Strikes Man, Who Dies From Wound

Luray, Va., April 7.—Arthur Turner, of Rockingham county, was fatally wounded Saturday by George Orve, of Shenandoah, and died yesterday.

The difficulty started between Geo. Orve, Sr., and young Turner at Orve's livery stable in Shenandoah. The elder Orve called for help and his son came to his assistance. Yourg Orve it is said, struck Turner with a pick handle. Turner left, but later he was found unconscious along the road.

Orve was brought here and a preliminary trial will be held Wednesday. Orve is 19 years old, while Turner was 22.

F. W. BAKER PARALYZED.

Richmond, Va., April 7.—Frederick W. Baker, business manager of the Southern Churchman, is in a critical condition at his home here from an attack of paralysis received Sunday morning while getting ready to tend services.

He was found speechless on the floor by his wife. Since the stroke he has been unable to utter a word or move a limb.

Prior to being stricken Mr. Baker was apparently in the best of health, despite his 75 years. He is a native of Maryland and came to Richmond 12 years ago from Belair, where he conducted a weekly newspaper for many years. The Rev. Wm. Meade Clark editor of the Churchman, is also critically ill. He is paralyzed in one side.

"THE COCK THAT CROWED TOO SOON."

As had been forecasted, Oscar W. Underwood, leader of the Democratic party in the House of Representatives, has triumphed in the primary election for Senator from Alabama. His competitor, Representative Richmond P. Hobson, according to dispatches, failed to carry his own Congressional district.

Mr. Underwood, without doubt, has carried his state on his own personal popularity, and not on the tolls issue, as some prefer to believe. He has for some time been one of the bulwarks of the Democratic party, and at the Baltimore convention his worth was acknowledged, although at that time the majority of the representatives of the organization preferred for President Woodrow Wilson, who has shown his ability at the helm of the ship of State.

The result of the election in Alabama will cast a shadow over Hobson's aspirations for the Presidential chair. It will be remembered that several days ago he expressed himself as confident of winning in the senatorial fight in Alabama, and that in 1916 he would be the candidate of progressive Democrats for President.

Hobson is a comparatively young man and has plenty of time to develop if the vital element of statesmanship is in him, but Mr. Underwood has already won his spurs, and the people not only of Alabama but Democrats throughout the country recognize his worth.

A bold military or naval act or a freak of fortune is not always a bona fide credential for statesmanship. All recognize the fact that the attempt to block the harbor of Santiago by sinking a vessel in the channel of the narrow river took nerve, and Hobson proved himself the proper man for such a desperate undertaking, but the nation at the time showed its appreciation of the bravery displayed and the "hero of Santiago" was given triumphs wherever he appeared and was kissed by hundreds of women. People, however, have since been talking about other things.

After the battle of Manila Bay friends of Admiral Dewey attempted to get him into the race for President. The admiral, not following the example of the late U. S. Grant, by keeping mum, became too eager and began to talk, thereby throwing all the fat into the fire. A comic paper about that time contained a cartoon representing Dewey as a rooster on a fence while the stars are shining. One line under the picture told the story—"The Cock That Crowed Too Soon." Hobson might have taken warning from this suggestion.

As stated above, some prefer to believe the vote in Alabama is intended as a rebuke to President Wilson for his action in regard to tolls in the Panama Canal, but we fail to see the matter in this light.

According to keen observers in Washington, national affairs never presented more interesting features than at the present time. The truth about the present situation, so far as the administration is concerned, is that President Wilson is ten times as strong as he was before the House acted on the canal tolls matter, and he will be even mightier than he is today when the Senate finishes the job.

TESTIFY AGAINST PASTOR.

Sensational Charges Examined by Ecclesiastical Court.

New York, April 7.—Three women testified yyesterday in the secret ecclesiastical trial of Dr. Jacob B. Price, the Methodist clergyman charged with improper conduct toward nine women members of his congregation.

Mrs. Hilma Dohl testified that Dr. Prince had made improper advances to her; Mrs. William Duke Moore said the clergyman had kissed her after a prayer for her husband's conversion, and Miss Prudence Dohl corroborated testimony of her mother, Mrs. Dohl, that efforts had been made to keep her from appearing again as a witness against Dr. Price.

Dr. Price denied categorically the charges made against him by the witnesses.

Mrs. Moore said she and her husband subsequently went to the parsonage together. "Dr. Price greeted us with outstretched hands, smiling," she said, "Mr. Moore told the pastor not to touch him."

She further testified Dr. Price continued to be suave during the whole interview, which ended with his request that the Moores kneel with him in prayer. During the interview, Mr. Moore asked the pastor why he had kissed his wife while he himself was visiting his sick mother. The pastor said that it was because his "sympathies ran away with him" now and then.

Mr. Moore, according to his wife, then told the pastor that in the future he had better keep his sympathies where they were wanted.

Death of Mrs. Stevens.

DON'T SWAT THE FLY—TRY THIS.

By Mrs. Sophie Liebenan Walker, Grand View on the Potomac.

Some years ago after the fishing season was over the waves of the Potomac washed a lot of the decayed fish into the banks of the river,, and residents along the shore were very much troubled with the foul smelling big fish flies I had one half teaspoon of formaldihide poison. I filled two soup plates with water and put the poison in. In the morning not a fly was alive and not one of them on the plates. Seems the oder draws them (it is not offensive), they taste and fly away and die. It is the cleanest and quickest est way to get rid of it. I bought one pint and took it to my neighbor's for their house and barns. They used it all the summer and their cows were not bothered with flies then. Formaldihide will hurt the eyes if too much is used. Keep plates standing where children cannot reach them. Fill them when they get empty about once a week,. Five cents' worth will keep a family a year. I have never been troubled with flies much. I keep everything in glass or tinware. So I am not bothered with rats or mice either. I never use screens. I prefer the open doors and windows. People should teach their children to burn sweepings and refuse, and etc.

Give them plenty of fresh air and sunlight and there would not be so much sickness. When I lived in Washington I never had a garbage can, everything was burnt in the stove or listrobe, the damper opened while it was being consumed so there was no odor whatever. While our neighbors were sick we always were in good health. Hugging the stove steam heat and not enough of God's blessed sunshine makes people weak.

Sure Indications of Lung Trouble

Among the indications of threatened Lung Trouble are a continued cough, fever and night sweats. A change of climate often helps, but it seems that something more is needed to stop the cough and sweats and arrest the progress of disease. Eckman's Alterative, after many years of use, is known to be most beneficial in bringing about relief, in many cases complete recoveries. Investigate this case:—

Schell City, Mo.

"Gentlemen: I had a terrible cough, night sweats and pleurisy in my lungs. A man who heard me coughing advised me to take your Alterative. I paid no attention to him then. I got so bad the doctor said I should go to Wyoming. I did, and when I got there I steadily grew worse. Then I remembered what had been told me about your medicine. I began taking it, with no faith whatever, but before I had taken three bottles I could eat anything. Fever and night-sweats stopped and for over a year I have been well and in better health than I ever was."

W. F. ROMAR.
(Affidavit).

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

Do Your Shopping the Modern Way

There are two ways of shopping—the modern way and the ancient way. The modern way is by telephone.

The ancient way is by going about from store to store, in crowded cars and elevators, losing time and patience.

You can shop by telephone in all kinds of weather. Why not have a residence telephone installed and shop the modern way?

A Neglected Cold Often Affects the Lungs

Many serious cases of Throat or Lung Trouble can be directly traced to a cough or cold which has been neglected. If you notice that a cough persists in clinging to you take warning. If you neglect trying to stop this supposed trivial trouble the throat and lungs later become affected. In many cases Eckman's Alterative has been the means of bringing permanent relief. Investigate this case:—

Saratoga, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Lung Trouble by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit. At Christmas time, 1900, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. R. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alterative, which I took with excellent results. I have gained in weight. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

A Cure For Sour Stomach.

Ollie B. Wright Jackson, Defendant.

An affidavit having been duly made, as required by law, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Virginia, and that she cannot be found within the jurisdiction of this State, and the Sergeant having made a return upon the original process or summons issued herein that the defendant is a non-resident of his bailiwick, and application having been duly made in open court for an order of publication against said defendant to appear and answer a bill in chancery filed by the complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit; and an order of publication having been duly granted in open court, it is therefore ordered that said defendant do appear here within 15 days after due publication hereof to answer the suit of complainant against the defendant for an absolute divorce on the grounds of desertion and abandonment for more than three years prior to the institution of this suit: and to do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in Alexandria City, Virginia, and that a copy be sent by registered mail by the clerk to this Court to the last known place of address, residence and abode of defendant, to-wit: 115 11th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., as stated in the application for this order of publication which shall be certified by the clerk to this court, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of this court on or before the next rule day of this court.

George A Pride, Complainant.
Vs.
Jennie V. Pride, Respondent.
In Chancery.

Upon the application of the complainant now duly made and filed in accordance with the statute, together with the affidavit made by the complainant of defendant's non-residence said affidavit stating the defendant's last known place of residence and abode in the city of Philadelphia, state of Pennsylvania, at No. 1715 Chadwick street, the Court on this 5th day of January, 1914, it appearing to the court from the said affidavit; the Sergeants return of process showing that the defendants is not within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and the evidence that the defendant is a non-resident of this State and not within the jurisdiction of the State of Virginia, and that her last known place of residence and abode was 1715 Chadwick Street, in the city of Philadelphia, state of Pennsylvania, the Court doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is for complainant to obtain a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant upon the ground of desertion, and it is ordered that said defendant do appear here within fifteen days after due publicaton of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order of publication be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of said city on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered. That the last known place of defendant's abode being 1715 Chadwick St. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the Clerk is directed to mail a copy of said publication addressed to said Jennie V. Pride, at No. 1715 Chadwick street, Philadelphia, Pa., the same to be by registered mail, and the Clerk shall certify to the court that said copy has been so mailed.

A REAL NERVE AND BODY-BUILDING MEDICINE.

We believe Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is the best remedy made for toning the nerves, enriching the blood, building up wasted tissues, renewing health, strength and energy—the best medicine you can use if you are run-down, tired-out, nervous and debilitated, no matter what the cause. It doesn't depend for its good effect upon alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. It may not make you feel better in a few hours, but it will make you feel better, we are sure, just as soon as the tonic and food properties it contains have a chance to get into the blood and, through the blood, into the rest of the system. Pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites have long been endorsed by successful physicians, but here, for the first time, they are combined into one preparation which, as a nerve-food and a builder of strength and health, we believe, has no equal.

If you don't feel well, begin taking Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion today, and build your health and strength-en your system against more serious illness. To convalescents, old people, puny children and all others who are weak, run down or ailing, we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with our personal promise that, if it doesn't make you well and strong again, it will cost you nothing. If we didn't have the utmost faith in it, we wouldn't offer it with this guarantee, nor even recommend it to you. We are sure that once you have used it you will recommend it to your friends, and thank us for having recommended it to you. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us, $1.00. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King street, Alexandria, Va. No. 28.

Within three hours after his American wife, formerly Lady Randolph Churchill, had been granted an absolute decree of divorce on statutory grounds, George Cornwallis-West yesterday in London married Miss Patrick Campbell, the famous actress.

James Gordon Bennett has passed in the crisis in his illness, according to Dr. Robin, his physician, who arrived yesterday at Cairo, Egypt. The physician said that his patient is now out of danger but that his period of convalescence will be a long one.

Lower Michigan yesterday was swept by a heavy snowstorm. Up to noon four inches of snow had fallen in Detroit, 4.8 inches in Grand Haven, 3.4 in Grand Rapids, and about two inches in Saginaw, Lansing, Kalamazoo, and Alpena.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Riotous scenes attended the closing of the murder trial of Paul Aubain, aged 40, in the superior court at San Diego, Cal., yesterday afternoon, when the prisoner, immediately after being pronounced guilty by the jury, leaped over a railing and stabbed Assistant District Attorney Dempsey, McKee with an improvised weapon fashioned from a spoon. Aubain aimed a blow at McKee's back while the attorney was leaning over a table. The weapon struck a glancing blow on the shoulder blade, sinking an inch into the flesh. Spectators attacked Aubain and overpowered him. The spoon with which Aubain attacked McKee had been sharpened to a keen edge on the concrete floor of his cell. Aubain was tried for the murder of two Italians. His defense was that they had attempted to blackmail him.

With every omen of peace, the home rule bill for the third time passed its second reading last night in the British House of Commons, the government's majority being eighty votes. The vote was 356 for to 276 against. The tone of the closing debate was distinctly conciliatory.

Theodore E. Burton, after almost a quarter of a century of service in Congress, made a statement last night which is interpreted as an announcement of his withdrawal from the contest for re-election in Ohio. Mr. Burton gives as the reason of his willingness to retire a desire to further the reuniting of his party in Ohio. Apparently Mr. Burton thinks that his candidacy for another term would be an obstacle to the smoothing of differences among Ohio Republicans and would result in his defeat.

Labor troubles are assuming critical proportions in St. Petersburg. More than 600,000 men are out of work. By order of the government, the principal factories of the city have shut down and declared a lockout.

Ivan Sopornowski, a Russian millionaire, inserted a clause in his will bequeathing $100,000 to any airman who would convey his coffin to the graveside in an aeroplane. A young airman named Posoff offered to undertake the task and placing the coffin in his biplane, flew to the cemetery, where he made such a bad landing that he nearly killed himself. M. Sopornowski's relatives reluctantly paid him $100,000 out of the estate.

An electrician, Senor Iglesias, on Sunday at Madrid gave a successful demonstration of an apparatus of which he is the inventor, for condensing and utilizing atmospheric electricity. With the device Senor Iglesias lighted and extinguished at will fifteen electric bulbs placed at a distance of 600 yards. Experts expressed the opinion that the discovery has great possibilities with regard to cheap production of current for industrial purposes. William Marconi early last February lighted an electric bulb at a distance of 6 miles by a wireless current supplied from a 100-horsepower engine.

GIRL ELOPES WITHOUT HAT.

Virginia Couple Make Quick Get-Away and Are Married.

Frederick, Md., April 7. — Miss Frances M. Haga, 18 years old, daughter of John E. Haga, a farmer, and Paschal R. Kephart, 24, of Leesburg, Va., eloped here last night and were married by the Rev. Douglass Hooff, pastor of All Saints' Episcopal church.

The bride, who was hatless, said she did not have time to equip herself with headgear. Kephart, who operates a lumber mill, has been paying attention to Miss Haga for two years, but her parents objected to marriage on account of her youth. This morning her mother sent her to school with her brother's lunch. The groom saw her pass and immediately hitched fastest horse to a buggy and followed. After delivering the lunch they drove to Knoxville and took a train for this city. The pair then hunted up Deputy Clerk Chapline and went with him to the courthouse for a license. They will return tomorrow to seek parential forgiveness.

MINISTER MOBBED

Rev. Otis L. Spurgeon Left Helpless in Road by Men Who Resented His Sermons.

Denver, Colo., April 7.—Suffering from severe bruises about the head and body, which caused hemorrhages, Rev. Otis L. Spurgeon, Baptist minister, of Des Moines, Iowa, who was kidnapped and beaten by a mob Sunday night, lay in St. Luke's Hospital yesterday at the point of death. Chief of Police O'Neill said that city detectives who made an investigation were unable to learn the name of any man who participated in the kidnapping, but that the inquiry would be continued.

Dr. Spurgeon has been the object of several hostile demonstrations since he came to Denver to deliver a series of anti-Catholic sermons. A mob of 100 persons gathered about the hotel where he was staying Sunday night, carried him down stairs and forced him into an automobile.

The minister was driven twenty-four miles into the country where he was beaten by several men in the machine and left lying unconscious in a ditch. When he regained consciousness he made his way to the home of a deputy sheriff and was brought back to Denver.

DEBT ARGUMENT APRIL 13.

West Virginia Claims Share of Old Dominion's Assets.

Washington, April 7.—The Supreme Court has set April 13 for argument on West Virginia's application for a re-opening of the Virginia-West Virginia debt case for the purpose of allowing West Virginia to show it was entitled to assets in the hands of Virginia at the time of the separation of the States.

West Virginia's claim now is that the court should credit it with a share of Virginia's assets, which would reduce the sum to be paid by West Virginia to Virginia from $7,188,000 to $2,327,000, exclusive of interest.

Practically complete returns from the twelve Michigan counties which voted yesterday on the local option question gave the "drys" a victory in the winning of Ingham county, in which Lansing, the State capital, is located.
